

CORSICANA NOTES.

Goldberg, a bride-to-be received some dainty tea towels. An ice course was served. Out of town guests were as follows: Mesdames Abe Greenberg of New York, Sydney Brin of Dallas, Isadore Cohn, Dallas and Miss Nathalia Liebreicht of Tyler.

Little Miss Jewel Levine entertained her bunco club on Sunday afternoon. Elise Miller won the prize and Rosie Grossman, the booby. After refreshments were served, out of door games were enjoyed and all reported a lovely time when the time arrived to depart.

Miss Lillian Samuels graduates as valedictorian of the Senior Class, which consists of fifty-five students of the Corsicana High School. Her average for her four years at High School is 96. Miss Samuels has the distinction of being the first Jewish student, since the existence of Corsicana, to win these highest honors. Every one congratulates Miss Samuels as she certainly deserves credit for the record established.

Mr. Joe Miller of the Senior Class of the Corsicana High School won the Garitty-Allyn medal for being the best debater in a contest held here recently. Mr. Miller deserves credit for winning this medal as there were several other good debaters in the contest. We all congratulate Mr. Miller and hope he will win many more medals.

Mrs. Isadore Cahn of Dallas spent a few days here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Levine.

Announcement Party.

Mrs. C. M. Threadgill entertained an auction bridge last Friday afternoon, where she announced the engagement of Miss Lillie Joseph to Mr. A. J. Hepner of Denver, Col.

Carnations and sweet peas were used in profusion. The colors being confined to pink and white, while ferns banked the fire place and colonnades. Promptly at 2:30, a small postman in the form of Master J. W. Levin, with a miniature U. S. Mail bag and a postman's whistle, delivered to each guest a tiny envelope which gave the glad news. The bride's "health, wealth and happiness" were pledged at the punch bowl and she was conducted to head of table, where as a bride-elect, her chair awaited her bearing a huge white maline bow.

High score was made by Mrs. Chas. Carson, and she was presented with a hand painted bonbon set. In everybody's cut, Mrs. Robert Crockett proved a winner, and was awarded a collar and cuff set. Miss Lillie Joseph was presented with a set of gold etched bread and butter plates.

Refreshments of cream and cake were served. The guests were confined to the Friday bridge club. Maids and Matrons club and the "San Souci."—Coalgate Record-Register.
